

Qualifications & Preferred Candidate Profile

The successful candidate should possess the following qualifications:

- Must be a Hafiz of the Holy Qur'an (have memorized the entire Qur'an).
- Degree in Islamic Studies, Shariah, or a related field from a recognized Islamic institution.
- Demonstrated experience serving as an Imam or Islamic scholar in a mosque or Islamic center.
- Ability to deliver inspiring, practical, and balanced Friday (Jumu'ah) khutbahs that address contemporary issues while adhering to authentic Islamic teachings and the principles of moderation.
- Ability to lead the five daily prayers, Jumu'ah prayers, Eid prayers, Janazah prayers, and other religious services with confidence and Flair.
- Strong knowledge of Islamic jurisprudence (Fiqh) and the ability to provide sound religious guidance, fatwa, and counseling in accordance with the Qur'an and Sunnah.
- Proven ability to teach Qur'an recitation (Tajweed), memorization (Hifz), and Islamic studies to children, youth, and adults.
- Experience in delivering educational programs, halaqat, lectures, and community classes for brothers, sisters, youth, and families.
- Ability to serve as a compassionate spiritual leader by providing Faith-based care, family counseling, marriage guidance, and support during times of hardship.
- Demonstrated ability to engage youth through educational, recreational, and mentorship programs.
- Commitment to community outreach, interfaith dialogue, and building positive relationships with schools, faith-based organizations, and the wider community.
- Proficiency in using social media and digital communication platforms to deliver educational content and engage the congregation.

- Willingness to support fundraising initiatives and work collaboratively with the Board of Directors, staff, volunteers, and committees.
- Excellent communication and public speaking skills in both Arabic and English. Additional languages are considered an asset.
- Strong organizational, leadership, and interpersonal skills with a commitment to professionalism, integrity, humility, and exemplary Islamic character.
- Ability to maintain regular office hours and remain accessible to the congregation for religious guidance and community support.